Each community sponsors a variety of monthly special events. We take pride in our ability to enhance the lives of our residents.

Independent Living for Seniors

While all SHAG apartment communities provide affordable rents and an attractive lifestyle, our best asset is our people. All SHAG communities have professional, highly experienced and caring resident managers who have the comfort and well-being of the residents as their highest priority.

The Senior Housing Assistance Group (SHAG) is dedicated to providing affordable, independent living opportunities for seniors, as well as disabled seniors with self-help capabilities, throughout beautiful Western Washington.
